THE SECRETARY OF THE NAVY
WASHINGTON

AH D0557-1186

Dear Allen:

I can't tell you how very much I appreciated your thoughtful letter about my resignation.

No one knows better than I how very much I am going to miss the Navy and my wonderful friends in Washington but as I told the President, after over four years in the Department of Defense I think the time is propitious to turn my duties over to someone else.

Now, as you can well imagine, Julia and I are looking forward to returning to California and our family and friends from whom we have been separated so long.

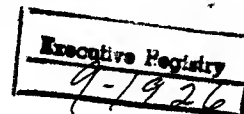

One of the most pleasant experiences we have had in Washington was to get to know you and Clover and I do hope our paths may cross often in the future.

Again my thanks and Julia joins me in sending both of you our warm personal regards.

Cordially,

Charlie
